Dear Friends,

This year's Annual International Conference of DRI INTERNATIONAL on «Hot Topics in International Dispute Resolution» is taking place in Dublin, Ireland, on 31 May – 2 June 2017.

Attached please find the Program of the Conference touching extremely interesting topics and including the Women in the Law Session and the Registration Form.

DRI – Dispute Resolution International is DRI's international arm. DRI is an international professional legal organization dedicated to enhancing the defense of corporate – business interests, which was established in the U.S. in 1960 and through the years it became worldwide known.

DRI is today the largest United States based legal association for lawyers who represent business interests in dispute resolution.

DRI International provides a great platform to meet, discuss, share ideas and network with fellow litigators and litigation-focused in-house counsel from around world.

For more information, please visit: <http://dri.org/>

Dimitris Emvalomenos (d.emvalomenos@bahagram.com), a partner of our Law Firm, is the Country Chair – Greece of DRI and he would be happy to give his reference required to any colleague practicing a relevant field and being interested in becoming a DRI Member, as well as any further clarification on DRI and this year's conference in Dublin.
